

Ginger Marie's 9 Step Manifest Your Dream Life Process

Congratulations on taking action to manifest your dream life!
I have created a 9 Step Process that I have used to manifest my soul mate, dream job, a higher salary, an ocean view apartment, a best-selling book, a growing business, and so much more!

In this workbook, I show you my 9 Step Process so that you can apply the steps and start manifesting your desires.

A large part of manifesting is dependent on your mindset and consistency implementing the manifesting process.

Know that with the right mindset anything is possible!

Let's get started.

Ginger Marie

9 Step Process

Step 1: Get clear on your desires & set goals

- Get crystal clear on what you want and turn your desire into a goal.

Step 2: Appreciate the now with gratitude

- Reflect on what you are currently grateful for in your life. Gratitude helps you shift out of a lack mentality and attract your desires.

Step 3: Repeat affirmations/mantras

- Start and end your day with affirmations/mantras about the life you want to create.

Step 4: Visualize and see it as yours

- Use as many senses as possible to vividly imagine your dream life.

Step 5: Take action

- Ask for help when you need it and take inspired action towards your desires.

Step 6: Immerse in goal & act as if you already have it

- Live as if you already have what you want.

Step 7: Believe and have faith

- Have absolute belief and faith what you want is on its way to you.

Step 8: Receive with gratitude

- Allow yourself to be open to receiving.

Step 9: Celebrate

- Celebrate and reward yourself for your badass manifesting skills!!!

A little bit about (me) Ginger Marie!

I am an Amazon Best-Selling Author, Speaker, Spiritual Teacher, and Yoga Instructor. I help people who are searching for a deeper level of happiness and self-love to find self-acceptance, power in their thoughts, and happiness in the present moment so that they can feel fiercely confident and in control of their lives.

During my own personal happiness journey, I was coached on, researched, and read all about being happy. I was tired of waiting for events in my life to grant me happiness. I wanted to be happy NOW, regardless of what was going on around me. Being happy now allowed me manifest and attract many things into my life. I found the love of my life, get promoted to a job I was passionate about, doubled my income, found my dream place, and strengthened my own self-love and confidence. This journey inspired me to share what I learned with others.

Do you want to feel financially free, fiercely confident, and in control of your life? What if I told you this can relate to your level of happiness and capacity for self-love?

Luckily for you, this is what I help my clients with and I want to help you too! If you are seeking a more positive and satisfying approach to life and I'm someone you might be interested in working with, let's chat!
